

Strategy Council Europe

Responsible tax and sustainable growth

Tuesday, 19 March 2019

Royal Museums of Art and History

Parc du Cinquantenaire, 10 | Brussels

The second edition of the Strategy Council Europe will focus on responsible and effective tax practices - in Italy and in Europe - as a strategic lever for freeing up resources to support economic and social development and enhance industrial and cultural assets.

During the event, Deloitte will contribute to the debate presenting an exclusive Survey focused on these themes to facilitate a high profile discussion with European policy makers and leading business associations.
